It's all about

Respect

WORLD ELDER ABUSE AWARENESS DAY

Wednesday

June 15

9am - 3pm
Queen St Mall
Stage (near Myer)

Brisbane City

*Wear

An interactive and celebratory public showcase to recognise, respect and celebrate eldership, hosted by the allies and advocates standing up against Elder Abuse.

WEAAD provides an opportunity to connect and learn about Elder Abuse, its impact and older people's right to protection. When respect and honour are positioned in our interactions with Elders, we are all better positioned to combat Elder Abuse from occurring.

Let's talk

Starting the day at 9am with Tai Chi by Kevin Bee, a 90 year old instructor. Official Opening at 10am, followed by a program of joy-sparking entertainment and passionate guest speakers Rebecca Wilson (Founder at Starts at 60) and Queensland Public Advocate, Dr Chris Chesterman.

- Let's talk about respect.
- Let's talk about ageing, wisdom and life experience.
- Let's talk from a position of empowerment so together we can combat Elder Abuse.
