

Time for Grandparents Program (QLD)

Jar-jum Nim-bul-ima
(Children Return)

Support for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Grandparents informally caring for their Grandchildren and include:

- Telephone support, information and referrals
- Provide respite activities
- Brokerage is available for children to participate in sports and recreational activities

The purpose of the overnight cultural camps is to provide some 'time-out' for Carers and cultural educational activities for grandchildren to learn their culture.

1300 135 500

9am to 5pm Monday to Friday

Proudly operated by

UnitingCare

Time for Grandparents Program (QLD)

This state-wide service is for grandparents who are full-time carers of their grandchildren and not receiving the Kinship Carer payment or have a care plan through the Department of Child Safety.

Support includes information, referrals and telephone support. There may also be financial assistance for grandchildren's school camps and to join fun recreational activities such as dance, guides, scouts, football, soccer, netball and much more.

Dependant on program brokerage, the program can provide enriching activities for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Grandparent carers and their grandchildren to feel culturally included, safe and sensitive to their needs

Non-Indigenous Grandparent carers raising their Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander are welcome to join us in their cultural journey of learning.

For further information, please contact our Aboriginal worker at the Time for Grandparents program on 1300 135 500 and ask to speak to Dulcie.

Contact Seniors Enquiry Line & Grandparents Information Line and ask to speak with staff from the Time for Grandparents program.

1300 135 500

grandparentsinfo@uccommunity.org.au

grandparentsqld.com.au

Funded by

Queensland Government

Proudly operated by

UnitingCare